

Texts about the sky

Im Englischunterricht der vierten Klasse war der nächtliche Himmel das Thema der ersten Frühlingswochen. Die Kinder haben eine Collage gestaltet und Texte dazu geschrieben. Hier ihre Werke. (Die Rechtschreibung wurde korrigiert.)

The comet night

The moon is shining. Three persons on Mossy Hill are looking to the comet. The dog is with mum and dad. Julie is falling over a stone. She is laughing.

Raphael

The comet

There is a dark blue sky and a shining comet. On the right side of the hill is a little wood. It has three stars over the hill. There are three persons: mum, dad and a girl. They are looking at the comet and the stars.

Maxi

On Mossy Hill

In one night there are three children and a dog on Mossy Hill: two girls and a boy. One girl is wearing a red dress and orange trousers. The other girl is wearing a pink dress and blue jeans. The boy is wearing an orange shirt and blue jeans. They see six stars, the moon and a comet.

Sarina

The comet

There are eight stars and a white moon and a dark blue sky. Three people are looking at the comet. They are happy.

Joel

Halleys Comet

Julie, mum and dad are watching Halleys Comet. The dog is also with them. Halleys Comet is very big. The tail of the comet is thousands of kilometres long. It appears every 76 years. Julie wants to make a picture but she falls over a stone and falls down the hill.

Rian

